

Security Policy

This document has been drawn up by the Company in order to provide the security of the employees, contractors, customer, the processed data, the tangible and intangible resources of Allegro Group company and to ensure compliance with the law and relevant regulations.

Last update 2023-11-27

Full version of the policy is an internal information, not publicly disclosed.