

Compliance Policy

This Compliance Policy establishes the framework principles and minimum standards for compliance management systems across all companies within the Allegro Group. Its primary aim is to ensure that all group activities are conducted ethically and in accordance with applicable laws and voluntary commitments while integrating a compliance culture into daily operations to maintain stakeholder trust and business continuity.

The full version of the policy is an internal information, not publicly disclosed.

Last update: 2026-03-11