

Insider dealing and market abuse policy

This document has been drawn up by the Company in order to assure that its directors and employees understand and comply with the rules prohibiting insider dealing and market abuse. The rules are designed to prevent the misuse of inside information and to prevent the dissemination of false or misleading information to the market.

Full version of the policy is an internal information, not publicly disclosed.

Last update: 2026-03-11